

Morocco & Atlas

Duration: 12 Days
Distance: 3200km

Executive Tour Description:

Morocco has always attracted people from Africa and the Mediterranean. From passion and fights royal towns were born, surrounded by their walls. From princes' dreams palaces were built, from knowledge the first university in the world was created. Time does not run in Morocco, among the sand dunes, the mountains of the Atlas, under the sun and the stars it takes a personal rhythm. Time takes its time.

Map:

Prices:

Motorcycle	Premium	Medium
R1200GS	4 400	3 800
F800GS	4 300	3 700
F650GS	4 200	3 600
Passenger	2 900	2 650
Own Bike	3 700	3 200
Chauffeur Service	5 050	4 700

2009 tour prices per person, in Euros

Dates: 2009

April	19th to 30th
October	(M) 17th to 28th

Precise Tour description:

Day 1&2&3: As the French Riviera unravels its roads before us, you will enjoy the wonderful cliffs, the sea, and the charming little villages of this beloved coast. The day will end in Géménos. Day 2: A ride through the Camargue will end in Languedoc, a region well known for its astounding Roman towns and monuments, as well as its wine and aperitifs! In Sète the ferry will be waiting for you. Day 3 a relaxing cruise on the Mediterranean sea.

Day 4: In the morning the ferry will arrive in Tanger. After Chefchaouen comes the superb «Route de crêtes» riding along the «Rif» mountain. From Kétama the road turns south towards the towns of Aïn-Aïcha and Aïn-Kansera before reaching the town of Fès, at the feet of the «Moyen Atlas» mountains. Fès. Fès belongs to the UNESCO World Heritage and has a superb architecture and very active life.

Day 5: A long day of riding through the «Moyen Atlas» passing by Azrou and the Cedar trees forest, Midelt and many more superb scenic places. From Midelt you will go on riding south through the Ziz canyon towards Errachidia. Still some kilometers to go to reach Merzouga and the dunes! Watching the sun play with the dunes is a must. Expect a surprising night.

Day 6: West is the direction for this day! From Merzouga the tour will ride towards the city of Tinerhir where a bit of time will be used to ride up the Todra canyon. Another canyon you will ride is the Dadès canyon. Following the Kasbahs road and the Dadès valley the tour arrives for a good rest in Ouarzazate.

Day 7&8: Time to cross the «Haut Atlas» and climb to the highest pass in Morocco the Tizi-n-Tichka at 2260m. You will first follow the river Asif Imini to Agouim before reaching the pass. From there, towards Taddert the road curves and «Haut Atlas» scenery is amazing and will last for quite a while. After Touflint it is time to relax and enjoy the ride to Marrakech. Day 8 : Rest day in Marrakech. Marrakech the «red city», with its Palaces like Mamounia, minarets, mosques and, of course, the souks!

Day 9: Time to get back on the bikes and ride towards the Ouzoud cascades (among the most beautiful in Morocco) through the Ait-Bouguemez valley. On the way we will ride through Beni-Mellal and Khénifra. Back along the «Moyen Atlas» the tour climbs north towards Azrou, from where it goes westwards to Meknès. Like Fès Meknès belongs to the UNESCO world heritage.

Day 10&11&12: Last day in Morocco! North of Meknès stay the ruins of Volubilis. Leaving the inland part after Ksar-el-Kebir we will reach the Atlantic coast at Larache. Before reaching Tanger a ride through Asilah and its «St Tropez» look-alike style will be refreshing. By the end of the day the bikes will be stored on the ferry and the cruise will start. Day 11 : Cruise on the ferry. Time to write down all the souvenirs! Day 12 : Back in Sète in the morning and time to ride along the coast, through the Camargue and back to Saint-Raphaël.

Overnight town: Géménos, Fès, Merzouga, Ouarzazate, Marrakech, Meknès.